THE latest from Philadelphia is twenty-round fighting. It won't take place right in the city itself, but the promoters of the game have it al. planned out, and say that things can't go wrong. The fighting club is to have a "coun try house" in Delaware County, jus; outside of the Pennsylvania State authority. This is said to be only half an hour's ride from the Philadelphia City Hall by trolley. The club will have an arena scating 4,500 spectators. There will be decisions,

If Billy Rocap's plans come out aright there will be no necessity for New Yorkers to kick about the railroad rates to San Francisco. All the champions will show in Delaware County, within easy reach, and you will be able to buy your ten, fifteen or twenty dollar seats just as in the days of the old Horton
